

APRIL 2016

Broome County admissions to crisis, inpatient, outpatient, & residential treatment facilities by primary substance type:

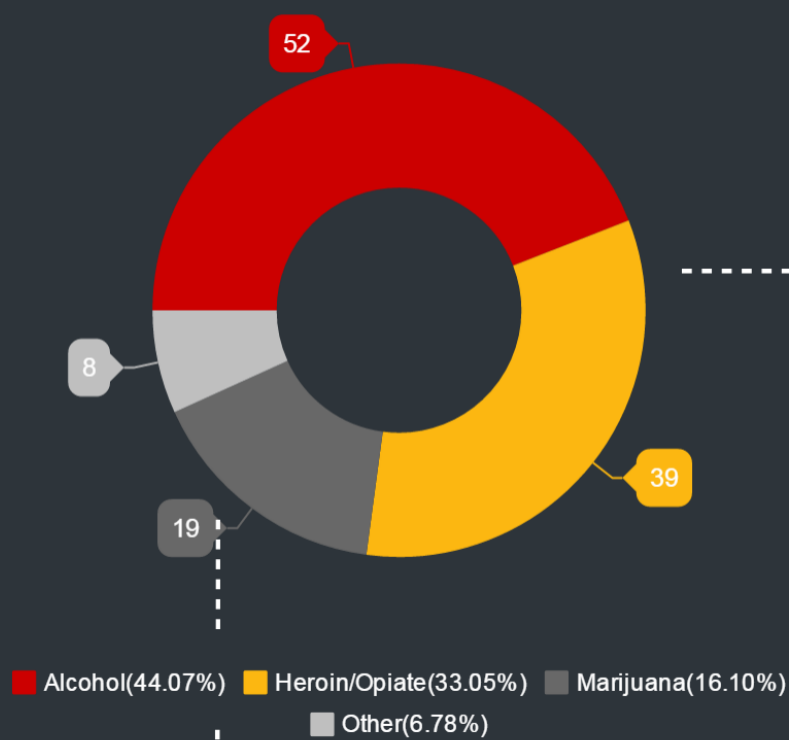

Crisis Admissions (60)

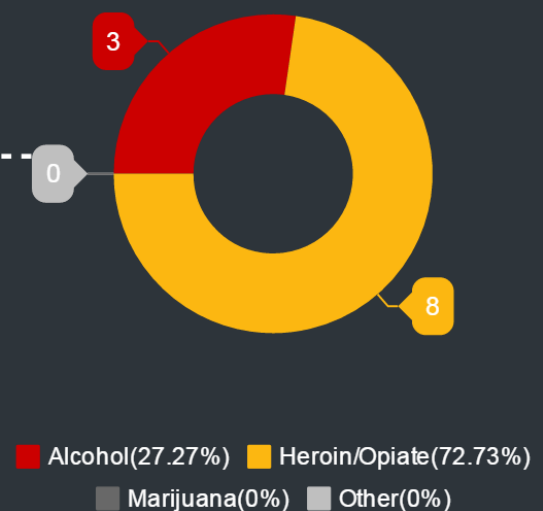

Inpatient Admissions (29)

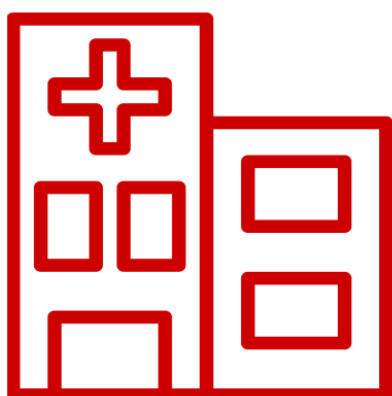

Outpatient Admissions (118)

Residential Admissions (11)

218 total admissions to Broome County treatment programs in April 2016

81 (37%) of clients identified alcohol as their primary substance upon admission

96 (44%) identified heroin/opiates as their primary substance upon admission

23 (11%) of clients identified marijuana as their primary substance upon admission

SOURCES: NYS OASAS LGU/County Admission Item Statistics Report - April 2016

This infographic was brought to you by: Broome Opioid Abuse Council